
SUMMER RETREAT 2019

Medicine Buddha - Sangye Menla

When: Summer 2019, from the 7th until the 13th of July.

The summer retreat 2019 will be devoted to the Medicine Buddha Meditation and will be guided by Claude Diolosa. It is the first time that such a retreat will take place in the holy city of Assisi for polish students, with translation into polish language.

No particular capacity is needed for such a retreat, only a proper motivation and the urgent need for self-inquiry and liberation are requested. This is the heart meditation of many doctors, healers and yogis and can also be usefully applied to help dying people.

The retreat will begin on Sunday, the 7th at 10.00 in the morning and end on Saturday, the 13th of July at lunch time at 13.00. The teaching hours are each day from 10.00 - 13.00 and from 16.00 - 19.00. This time schedule can be modified and just gives an idea about the hours dedicated to the practice every day.

You are requested to bring some flowers and candles as an offering.

Our centre does not provide lunch or dinner, so anyone who likes to stay over during the lunchtime should bring his own food with him, seating and tea will be provided.

Very important: We just have enough place for 25 participants, not more.

The text for the meditation will be provided to the students for the retreat.

Course fees: 350€, payable in cash at the beginning of the course.
